

Attachments

You can use the `attachment` helper to tell the browser the response should be stored on disk rather than displayed in the browser:

```
get '/' do attachment
  "store it!"
end
```

You can also pass it a file name:

```
get '/' do
  attachment "info.txt"
  "store it!"
end
```